Eagan Foundation Welcomes New Board Members

Eagan, Minnesota – The Eagan Foundation, Inc is pleased to announce its 2010-2011 Board of Directors. The 27-member board, led by Eagan business owner Patti Engel, Engage Health, Inc., includes a number of veteran Eagan Foundation volunteers as well as eight new members to the organization. The Board of Directors is responsible for governing all fiscal operations of the Foundation, managing scholarship and community grant programs, and maintaining community partnerships.

“The Eagan Foundation has been serving the Eagan community for 20 years addressing essential and even critical community needs,” stated Ms. Engel. “Over the past two decades, the Eagan Foundation has raised and distributed more than $700,000 in scholarships and support to hundreds of local students and many local nonprofits. I look forward to working with this extremely motivated, highly-talented board to serve the Eagan community and its evolving needs.”
