Eagan Foundation Welcomes New Board Members

Eagan, Minnesota – The Eagan Foundation is pleased to announce its 2009-2010 Board of Directors. The 26-member board includes a number of veteran Eagan Foundation volunteers as well as new members to the organization. The Board of Directors is responsible for governing all fiscal operations of the Foundation, managing scholarship and community initiative programs, and maintaining community partnerships.

“The Eagan Foundation has a strong history of addressing critical community needs in Eagan, from providing scholarships to supporting local nonprofits,” stated Board Chair Janelle Waldock. “That distinguished legacy will be sustained by the energy and diverse experience brought by these new board members. Together we can help the Foundation reach new levels of service to the community.”

The members of the 2009-2010 Eagan Foundation Board of Directors are:

Janelle Waldock, Chair	Patty Engel, Vice Chair	Larry Haugen, Treasurer
Janet Alland	Angela Finnegan	Marty Johnson
Richard Bales	Rob Graham	Suzanne Kvas
Bob Braun	Laurie Halverson	Barb McGivern
Mary Cork	Tom Hedges	Bruce Nelson
Margo Danner	Brenda Johnson	Kathy Pollock
Barb Ducharme	Christina Johnson	Brenda Rivera
Lisa Endersbe	Juli Johnson	Diane Stang
	Karen Berg Johnson	Steve Thompson

The 2009-2010 Eagan Foundation board members bring leadership experience from a variety of segments of the community—including representatives from business, health care, education, government and nonprofit sectors. “I’m thrilled to have the opportunity to directly serve my community through the Eagan Foundation,” said Barb McGivern, vice president, Thomson Reuters, “it’s great to be part of a group of dedicated volunteers who are using their energy and talents in ways that make Eagan a better place to live and work.”

About the Eagan Foundation

The Eagan Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community-building organization, whose mission is to make Eagan the best place to live, learn, work and play.
