Eagan Foundation Welcomes New Board Members

Eagan, Minnesota – The Eagan Foundation is pleased to announce its 2010-2011 Board of Directors. The 28-member board, led by Eagan resident Robert Braun, includes a number of veteran Eagan Foundation volunteers as well as eight new members to the organization. The Board of Directors is responsible for governing all fiscal operations of the Foundation, serving as fiduciary agent for several small nonprofit organizations, managing scholarship and community grant programs, and facilitating community partnerships.

Over the past two decades the foundation has raised and distributed approximately $800,000 in scholarships to more than 800 students and provided support to many local nonprofits. “The Eagan Foundation has been filling critical needs in the Eagan community for 21 years,” said Chair Braun. “Last year alone we awarded nearly $60,000 to 72 local students and approximately $10,000 to 10 local organizations such as Friends of the Farm (Holz Farm), Eagan’s 4th of July Fun Fest, Eagan High School, Eagan Tribute & Memorial Plaza, and Kids ‘n Kinship. I’m proud to serve with these extremely talented and committed board members to continue strengthening Eagan’s status as a great place to live, work and play.”
